

Leo Borsdorf

Leo Michael Borsdorf, 92, of Stockton, died Friday, August 13, 2010, at Morgan

Borsdorf

Memorial Home in Stockton. Leo was born Feb. 18, 1918, to Rosetta Hughes Borsdorf and Simon Peter Borsdorf in Waddam's Township. He graduated from Holy Cross Catholic School and Stockton High School and later took correspondence courses. He married Blenda Jean Jones on Aug. 17, 1940, they were married 53 years.

He worked at Kraft Foods in many capacities. He was the manager for 44 years at Consolidated Foods, and then Kraft took over Consolidated Foods.

Leo served in WWII as a Machinist Mate Second Class. He was in the Battle of Paliu in the South Pacific.

Leo and his wife liked antique auctions, fishing, and good food. He was an outstanding person, a great father, husband, and grandfather. He will be greatly missed.

He is survived by one daughter, Lora Pickering of Stockton; one grandson, Thomas Pickering of Stockton; four nieces, Shirley Boyer of Stockton, Kathy (Gary) Magee of LaHabra, Calif., Rita Keller of The Colony, TX, and Marilyn Borsdorf of Stockton; two nephews, Mark (Carla) Thompson of Chicago, and Keith (Renee) Thompson of Canton, Miss.; and one sister-in-law, Barb (Manny) Olivers of Canton, Miss.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife; two brothers, Donald "Cy" and Julius; one sister, Leona; and two nephews, Bobby and Ronald Borsdorf.

There will be private services for family at a later date. Arrangements are being handled by the Hermann Funeral Home in Stockton.