

VERNON D. BUSKE

STOCKTON — Vernon D. Buske, 58, of Stockton, died Monday at Veterans Administration Hospital in Madison, Wis.

He was a self-employed carpenter and had been an employee and manager of Frudden Lumber Co. in Stockton. For 10 years, he was with the Illinois Highway Maintenance Dept. and was a World War II veteran.

Born June 28, 1920, in Stockton, he was the son of William and Clara (Sender) Buske. He married Violet Jones Adleman Sept. 22, 1950, in Dixon.

Surviving are his widow; two stepsons, Merle and Roger Adleman, both of Stockton; one stepdaughter, Mrs. Wilbur (Dolores) Mammoser of Stockton; four stepgrandchildren; five brothers, Clayton Buske Sr., Robert, Carson and Roger Buske, all of Stockton and Marshall Buske of Clinton, Iowa; and four sisters, Mrs. Ellsworth (Margaret) Haight of Stockton, Mrs. Vera Finkenbeiner of Oregon, Mrs. Philip (Marian) Bruehler of Freeport and Mrs. Dale (Geraldine) Sanders of Belvidere.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Funeral service will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at Hermann Funeral Home in Stockton with the Rev. William Kraemer, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Ladies Union Cemetery.

Friends may call from 7 to 9 p.m. tonight at the funeral home.

A memorial fund has been