

Clipped From *Freeport Journal-StandardHarold B. Evans

STOCKTON—Harold B. Evans of Stockton, a maintenance foreman for Chicago Great Western Railroad, died in his home Sunday of an apparent heart attack.

He was born April 3, 1901, in Woodbine Township, son of Richard and Edith (Beebe) Evans and married Emma Leonard in December, 1930, in Woodbine. He had lived in Stockton most of his life.

Mr. Evans was a member of Stockton Methodist Church, Methodist Men's Fellowship Group and Stockton American Legion and Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way of which he served as secretary-treasurer for many years. He was also local chairman and vice chairman of Grand Lodge.

Surviving are his wife; a son, Paul, of Rockford; two granddaughters; and a sister, Mrs. Ethel Jarnicke of Globe, Ariz. He was preceded in death by a brother.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday in Hermann Funeral Home with Rev. D. James Fitzhugh, pastor of Stockton Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Ladies Union Cemetery. Friends may call after 3 o'clock today.

A memorial has been established for the Heart Fund.

The names, logos, and other source identifying features of newspapers depicted in our database are the trademarks of their respective owners, and our use of newspaper content in the public domain or by private agreement does not imply any affiliation with, or endorsement from, the publishers of the newspaper titles that appear on our site. Newspapers.com makes these newspapers available for the purpose of historical research, and is not responsible for the content of any newspapers archived at our site.

© 2021 Newspapers.com™ by . All Rights Reserved.

Twitter

Facebook

Instagram

Blog