

IRVINE LIONEL EVANS

Irvine Lionel Evans died of influenza on Sept. 16, 1918, at a Naval Hospital, at Chelsea, Mass., aged 24 years. Mr. Evans entered the Navy from Harvard University, May 14, 1918. He was made cost accountant in the office of the chief inspector at Fore River Shipyards, Quincy, Mass. Accountant Evans was an only child and is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans. His remains were returned to his home and repose in the Stockton cemetery.

