Roy Johns

STOCKTON—Roy Johns died at about 6:20 this morning in the home of his son, Harry, in Stockton, with whom he had lived the past two months.

He was born Nov. 10, 1885, in Churchville, N. Y., the son of Edward and Mary Knickerbacher Johns. He married Blanche A. Peters April 15, 1913, in Stockton. Johns worked as a fireman for the Great Western Railroad before his retirement in 1952.

He resided in Santiago, Calif., for eight years before coming to live with his son in Stockton.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. R. J. (Evelyn) Hahlen of Monroe; one son, Harry; a sister, Mrs. Grace Taylor of Holley, N. Y.; a brother, Gilbert of Detroit, Mich., and six grandchildren.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Hermann Funeral Home, the Rev. John E. MacMartin officiating. Burial will be in Ladies Union Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday.
