

Death of Old War Veteran

Steve Arnold, a well known old resident and civil war veteran, passed away at the County Infirmary near Galena Friday at the age of 88 years. Herman Bros. and Vanderheyden, undertakers, brought the body to their undertaking parlors, here. The funeral was held from that place Monday afternoon. Services were held in the Evangelical church, a former pastor, Rev. G. S. Smith, conducting the services. The burial was in the Townsend cemetery. The deceased went to the County Infirmary as a matter of choice, where he paid his way and had good care. Dec 18, 1924

In Memoriam

Lines written to the memory of Mr. Stephan Arnold, who departed this life Dec. 5th, 1924.

(By B. F. Gordon)

Once more the death call is giv'n Calling a weary soldier home;
Where departed ones will greet him

In that city, now his home.

Long he has traveled down life's pathway,

Feeble, journeying all alone; Mingling with life's joys and sorrows,

As one uncared for and unknown.

Long his bayonet has been shielded

His faithful hand will clasp no more;

No more the bugle will call for guard mount

Long his day of march is o'er.

Few flowers bedeck his lonely tomb

Where his body now reclines;
But the cherished flag went with
him,

Now his casket does entwine.

Now at rest near by his comrade

Who had long passed o'er the tide.

His last request, they should lie near each other,
Now they are at rest, side by side.

Now at rest, on that cherished hillside,

His chosen place of rest, when from earth released,

May birds sweetly sing o'er his silent tomb,

As he ever rests in peace.
