

FRANK T. ATCHISON DIES

5-10-62
Frank T. Atchison, 68, a building contractor for years, passed away suddenly Saturday afternoon at his home in Elizabeth from a heart attack.

He was born in Stockton on Dec. 15, 1893, and was a son of Grant and Hattie Hurd Atchison. Frank was well known in the Stockton area where he lived until his marriage to Anna Brudi, when he moved to Elizabeth. He was a genial person and will be missed by many.

Frank was a World War I veteran, serving six months overseas. He was a member of the American Legion.

Besides his wife he is survived by one son, Airman 1c Thomas in Spain; three sisters, Mrs. Bert (Flossie) Loven and Mrs. James (Mae) Claypool, both of Hampton, Ia., and Mrs. Peter (Gladys) Hartvig, Iowa City, Ia.; one brother, Clifford, Marshalltown, Ia.; a stepson, Melvin

Frank Atchison Dies Saturday At Home Here

Aug 15
1962

Frank T. Atchison, 68, retired construction contractor, died suddenly at his home on South Madison street about 2:45 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Frank Thomas Atchison, the son of Grant and Hattie (Hurd) Atchison, was born in Stockton Dec. 15, 1893. He resided in the Stockton area during the early part of his life but moved to Elizabeth at the time of his marriage to Anna Brudi.

He leaves his wife, one son, Thomas, who is with the U. S. Air Force in Spain; a stepson, Melvin Meyer of Elizabeth; one brother, Clifford of Marshalltown, Ia.; and three sisters, Mrs. Bert (Flossie) Loven and Mrs. James (Mae) Claypool, both of New Hampton, Ia., and Mrs. Peter (Gladys) Hartvig of Iowa City, Ia.

He was a World War I veteran, having served overseas about six months during that war. He was a member of The American Legion.

Frank T. Atchison

ELIZABETH — Services for Frank T. Atchison, a former Elizabeth building contractor who died Saturday afternoon in his home, will be in the family home on S. Madison St. here at 2 p.m. Wednesday. Rev. William Morrissey, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Friends may call in the family home after 2 p.m. today.