

George Aurand

STOCKTON — George Aurand, a life-long Stockton resident, died Sunday afternoon in Freeport Memorial Hospital following an extended illness.

Mr. Aurand, a World War I veteran, was a member of Stockton American Legion.

He was born Sept. 29, 1895, in Berreman Township, son of Fred and Addie (Sites) Aurand.

Surviving are a son, Arthur of Oakridge, Ore.; a daughter, Mrs. William (Patricia) Baker of Cheney, Wash.; eight grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. George (Hazel) Dittmar, Stockton; and a brother, Carl of Boone, Iowa.

Funeral service will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Hermann Funeral Home, with the Rev. G. G. Griffiths of DeKalb, formerly of Stockton, officiating. Burial will be in Ladies Union Cemetery.

Friends may call after 2 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.

Monday

April 25-1971