

Steven J. Aurand

Steven J. Aurand, 28, of Winslow, died Sunday, April 23, 1989, from injuries sustained in a one vehicle accident Sunday morning.

The son of Russell and Lucille (Leitzen) Aurand of Winslow, he was born in Freeport on Jan. 14, 1961.

He was employed as a journeyman carpenter for Michael Nicholas Inc., Carol Stream, and served in the U.S. Air Force from March 1981 to February, 1988.

Surviving are his wife, Stacy; a daughter, Lindsey, 4 years old; a son, Zachery, 2 years old; his parents; two brothers, Norman of Winslow and Monte of Lena; three sisters, Janice (Mrs. Kurt) Miller and Sharon (Mrs. Dan) Tillis, both of Winslow, and Jeanne Ferguson of Monroe, Wis.; and six nieces and nephews.

Services were at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 26, 1989 at Leamon Funeral Home, and at 10 a.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, both in Lena. Visitation was from 6 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, at the funeral home. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Stockton.